AN ESOTERIC CLIMAX.

WHILE SPIKETOWN COUNTED SIXTY HOKO PREPARED IT.

A Professor of the Art of Legerdemain Enlightens a Whole Town, at Fifty Cents a Head, on the Difficult and Exasperating Subject of Cooking.

Nobody had ever heard of the celebrated Hoko Effendi, but the public curiosity to see him was no less keen on that account. In the little western Illinois town on which he had alighted like a flaming meteor the visit of a professor of magic was an event. All that was known of him was that he had made his appearance about the time the stage-coach from Shacksville came in, and was supposed to have traveled in that conveyance; that he had procured the printing of several hundred small bills at the office of The Blizzard, promising to pay for them the next day.

The evening came. The price of admission to the entertainment was fifty cents for adults, children half price. The celebrated Hoko Effendi was his own doorkeeper, and the people of Spiketown turned out in large numbers. There were no deadheads except the editor of The Blizzard and the dignified citizen who wore dyed whiskers and a plug hat and announced himself at the door as the mayor.

When the audience began to show impatience by the customary stamping and whistling the world renowned master of Egyptian magic accepted the proffered services of a leading citizen as doorkeeper, and went back to the other end of the hall, disappearing behind the curtain that hid the stage from view.

In a few moments he reappeared in front of it and made a pleasing little speech, requesting close attention to the performances, as many of them were of a nature bordering on the supernatural, and promising an entertainment such as had never been seen in Spiketown before and never would again.

After performing some curious tricks with playing cards he announced that the first really difficult feat of the evening would now be shown—that of baking a cake without a pan of any kind.

"The ladies in the audience," he said, "when they bake cakes are compelled to use butter, eggs, flour, sugar, flavoring extract, icing, etc., and put the dough in a hot oven. I do nothing of the kind. By the simple manipulation of flour, syrup and a hat I can produce a cake in five minutes that no lady in this house can equal. I will make a cake that a committee, to be selected from the ladies present, will pronounce the best they ever tasted. I will do this or forfeit $100. Will some kind gentleman present oblige me with the loan of a high silk hat? Will you kindly lend it to me? I will take excellent care of it and return it in a few minutes."

The mayor demurred.

"Your hat will not be injured in the least, sir," the magician assured him. "I will return it to you without spot, blemish or stain. I have performed this feat thousands of times without the slightest injury to the hat."

The mayor of Spiketown, thus appealed to, relented and handed over his cherished tile.

Then the magician produced a pan of flour, which was passed through the audience and unanimously declared to be genuine. He poured it into the hat. Then a quart measure half filled with New Orleans molasses was produced and handed around in like manner, pronounced the pure, unadulterated stuff, and returned to him. He poured this into the hat likewise and stirred the mixture with a long lead pencil. The mayor involuntarily gasped and half rose in his seat, but the wizard again assured him, with a wave of the hand, "Your hat will not be injured in the least, my dear sir," and he proceeded with the performance.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen," he said, we will witness the finale, the denoomong, as it were, of this unparalleled feat of illusion. I can bake the cake just as well on a piece of ice as on a stove; but as there happens to be a good fire in this stove near the stage I will bake it on top of that. Again, I assure you, Mr. Mayor, that your hat will not suffer the slightest injury."

Stepping briskly down, he placed the hat on the stove.

"Now, good people," he said, "keep your eye on that hat till you can count sixty. I will retire and prepare the esoteric climax."

He mounted the stage and stepped behind the curtain.

In a moment a smoke went up from the hat on the stove, and the odor of something scorching filled the air.

The mayor of Spiketown jumped from his seat, and with one bound cleared the distance that lay between him and the stove.

He lifted his precious hat.

The bottom, or rather the top, fell out. The sizzling batter spread out over the stove. It hissed and sputtered and flew. And even as the mayor held up the hideous ruin of his once glorious hat and looked through it some of the yellowish mixture trickled on his vest and ran in sad, discouraged, bilious looking streams down his trousers.

His honor spoke a few words briefly, but emphatically—through his hat—and broke for the stage, followed by several of the leading citizens of Spiketown.

Behind the curtain were several empty barrels and boxes.

And the back window was up.

Somewhere in this wide, wide world the wizard of the Orient is still wandering about, happily unaware doubtless that a standing reward of fifty dollars and no questions asked is offered by the mayor of Spiketown, Ills., for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction for the crimes of grand larceny, malicious injury and obtaining money under false pretenses, of one Hoko Effendi, master of Egyptian magic and so called eighth wonder of the world.—Chicago Tribune.

A Heifer in a Bathtub.

A number of cattle were landed at the Weems line wharf yesterday morning. Their driver was James Groucher. The animals seeming quiet, Groucher started to drive them without any ropes. On reaching Conway street a heifer, which had been moving along very placidly, became very much animated, and made things very interesting for the balance of the herd. The street being too wide for her she danced up an alley between 129 and 131 Conway street. A gate blocked her way, but only momentarily. Through it she went, and then another obstacle presented itself. Mrs. Emma A. Poole, who proved to be no more of a stop to the heifer's onward progress than Fort Carroll would be to a modern man-of-war. In a moment Mrs. Poole was knocked to the ground, and in the kitchen it went. There some destruction of property was committed, but not enough to satisfy the heifer.

The dining room was next entered, where the well known quadruped-in-a china-shop scene was re-enacted. The hallway was then taken in, and a lamp was knocked down. The heifer wanted to conquer higher worlds, so she went upward into a bedroom. Here, temporarily, repose was sought on the bed, but it fell under the animal's weight, other damage being done during this occurrence. From here, the weather being warm, her heifership went into the bathroom and hopped into the bathtub. Mrs. Poole then commenced calling for help, and, with the assistance of a blue coated soldier, drove the animal out, and she at once sailed up Hanover street and there entered another house, but did no damage. The driver finally caught the animal.—Baltimore American.

An Infatuated Tomcat.

Miss Ethel, daughter of D. W. Pease, of West Carrollton, is the possessor of a Maltese cat. Early in the spring the cat deserted his place in the house and took up his abode with the chickens, remaining day and night in the chicken yard. He soon formed an attachment for an old black hen, which was reciprocated, and the two became inseparable. Thus matters went on for some time, when the hen, remembering that the usual season for multiplying and replenishing her species had arrived, selected a nest in the poultry house and made known her intentions in the usual way. She was at once supplied with the necessary eggs and commenced business. This, it was supposed, would end the rather strange flirtation and Tommy would return to his mat on the porch, but not so. Judge of the surprise of the family on going to the poultry house the next day to find that his catship had taken possession of the adjoining nest with the nest egg and was sitting in the most approved fashion.—Cor. Dayton (O.) Herald.

A Candy Uniform.

Warden Aull has adopted a novel method of keeping track of such convicts as are continually planning to escape. Thursday morning he surprised three of the most incorrigible by dressing them up with a flaming red flannel blouse and cap. Across the back of the blouse in plain view is a broad white strip of canvas marked in large, plain letters, "Convict No. —." The pants are the regulation stripes. It was a great surprise to the convicts.

As they marched to the canal they were subjected to a great deal of raillery.

The warden says these three have kept the officers and guards busy for some time trying to keep run of them. With these suits on they can be easily watched from the various posts and their every movement noted. All who attempt to escape hereafter will be treated in like manner.—Folsom (Cal.) Telegraph.

Georgia's Profits from Fruits.

The Georgia fruit crop is a big thing this year, and everybody is interested in knowing what the growers will make out of it. In the peach and grape crops alone conservative estimates show that about 500 carloads of peaches and 100 carloads of grapes will leave the state for foreign markets during the present season. The estimated receipts for the peach and grape crops combined are $750,000.

Reports show that the peaches are well formed, of good size and perfectly sound, and this, together with the decrease in yield from last year, makes good prices and ready sales an assured fact. Other important fruit crops will largely swell the total sales, and lots of summer money will be put in circulation where it will do good.—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun.

A Famous Sculptor of Italy.

Professor Pio Fedi died at the age of seventy-six. He suffered for several years from paralysis. He was one of the best modern sculptors of Italy, an imitator of Canova and a follower of the Greek school. Some of his best statues are at the Loggia del Arcagno, at the Uffizi and the Old Palace. One of his "Christs" adorns the upper part of the Scala Santa at Rome. From every part of Italy telegrams of sympathy have arrived. His funeral was very grand. All those who belong to the Academy of Art and all the notabilities of the town followed his body; innumerable garlands and bouquets covered the funeral car.—Florence Cor. Galignani Messenger.

Harvard Examinations.

Harvard university is spreading her net over a very wide extent of territory this year. It is announced that examinations for admission to that institution are to be held simultaneously in no less than twenty-five places, including England, Germany and Japan. It looks as if Harvard wanted the earth and was in a fair way to get a large section of it.—Boston Herald.

Fatally Shocked by a Dog Fight.

Lee Ennis, a young colored resident of Huntsville, Tex., who witnessed the hanging of Alf Wilson on Saturday, fainted when the drop fell and died late that night from the effects of the shock. —Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

English and American Land Owners.

There is a constant feud between the suburban residents and the Sunday excursionists. The suburban resident goes to New York in the morning and goes back in the afternoon, except on Sunday, when he stays at home. It would suit him if the Sunday train service were almost entirely stopped, except one morning train out into the country and one evening train back to let his personal friends go out and spend the day with him. The Sunday excursionist represents to him a concentration of the destructive forces of mankind, so he goes to Tuxedo or Wave Crest or some reservation where excursionists are not permitted to go, and when he gets rich enough he builds a place in the midst of grounds wide enough to hide him from the road, and puts out watchmen to prevent people he does not want from coming in and tramping on the grass.

This is more an American than an English feeling. In England almost all of the show country places are open to visitors under restrictions which are generally observed. It would be regarded as an improper and unsocial thing for an Englishman with a fine country place to drive people off the grounds. Instead of that he welcomes visitors and provides guides to take them around and look after them.—New York Sun.

Big Prices for Old Toys.

Old toys so very seldom survive the rough work which their possessors give them that if by any chance they do weather the storm they become extremely valuable. A collection of old playthings, many of which belonged to royal children, has just been sold at the Hotel Drouot, and some of the articles fetched prices which even their artistic merit and their strange survival of the vicissitudes would hardly have seemed to merit. For instance, a little doll, rather less than a foot high, but clad in a panoply of steel, "armed at all points exactly cap-a-pie," but perfectly modeled, and made at the time when Louis XIII sat on the throne of France, sold for 615 francs; and even this price was eclipsed by that given for a tiny set of carriages carved in wood and accompanied by little wooden soldiers, made not consule planco, but when Napoleon was first consul, which brought in nearly 1,000 francs. A miniature kitchen, interesting as being an exact model of that useful houshold apartment, tempo Louis XVI, and a little jointed doll, sixteen inches high, dressed in a broche silk Watteau dress, fetched 340 francs and 110 francs respectively. Many other toys belonging to bygone epochs sold at almost fancy prices.—Galignani Messenger.

Rat Exterminators.

An old trapper has been bringing from the mountains for two weeks a number of peculiar little animals that have puzzled a good many people to tell what they were. They are about the size of a common cat and have large bushy tails like that of the raccoon. Their bodies are long and slender and well protected with a thick growth of brownish colored hair. Their eyes are black and snapping and when teased they growl and spit like a cat, showing a row of teeth as sharp as cambric needles. The name of these little animals is the Bassiris, and they are a species of the civit cat, ranking between the fox and the weasel. They are better than all the pussies in creation as rat exterminators, and about twenty of them have been turned loose in different warehouses and livery stables in this city.—San Francisco Call.

Racing on Wooden Legs.

A race on wooden legs from Bordeaux to Biarritz and back, a distance of 303 miles, was begun yesterday. Eighty-one stilt runners entered for this race left the Hotel de la Gironde at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, being "played off" by a brass band. They were accompanied by a party of bicyclists, whose duty was to see that fair play was observed. Among the racers was the Arcachon baker, Silvain Dornon, who traveled on stilts, or claimed to have done so, from Paris to Moscow.

A quarter of an hour after the stilt racers had set out from Bordeaux, a party of eighteen women and young girls, also mounted on stilts, left Bordeaux for Cerans, having undertaken to run there and back, a distance of fifty miles, in the day.—London News.

Hydrophobia and the Dog Catchers.

A great deal of rot about hydrophobia is being printed in the newspapers just now. It is done, we suppose, in order not so much to scare people into having their pet dogs licensed and muzzled as to give the dog catchers the sort of moral support they certainly need in the pursuit of their infamous business. So yarns about mad dogs and their depredations are invented and published, a great many sensitive people are terrorized and the dog catcher drives a profitable trade. There is no truth in these blood curdling tales. There has not been a case of hydrophobia in Chicago this year, and it is a question whether there actually ever has been any.—Chicago News.

Renewing Old Straw Hats.

"Don't throw away your straw hat because it is discolored by rain," said a hatter this morning. "Scrub it with wet cornmeal, and then hang it up for a few minutes in sulphur smoke. It will come out as white as a brand new one."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Blandyte is the name given to the new material made of Trinidad asphalt and waste rubber. It resists the heat of high pressure steam and lasts well in the presence of oil and grease.

The harbor works in Lisbon are about to be abandoned, as far as improvements are concerned, as the contractor finds himself unable to carry on the work.

A street in Germany like a portion of an Edinburgh street has been paved with india rubber. The result is said to be most satisfactory.

MRS. GRAHAM'S
CUCUMBER and ELDER FLOWER CREAM.
Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind, and prevents sun burns and freckles, and blackheads will not come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of the skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00, at all druggists and hair-dressers, or at Mrs. Graham's establishment, 104 Post Street San Francisco, where she treates ladies for all blemishes of the face and figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

Amendments to the State Constitution.

At the forthcoming election a number of amendments to the State constitution will be submitted to voters. Among these is amendment No. 5. This is amendment of section 34 of article 4 of the constitution and provides that no appropriation bill, save the general appropriation and deficiency bills, the latter being for the support of government and state institutions, shall contain more than one item definitely expressed. In the deficiency bill the Governor may object to any item.

The next is Assembly constitutional amendment No 7, providing that a two-thirds vote of qualified electors of a county, city, town or township may incur a debt to run for forty years.

Senate Constitutional amendment No. 7, provides for extending a session of the legislature to one hundred days and no bill shall be introduced after sixty days without two-thirds of the members consent.

Senate Constitutional amendment No. 11, provides for giving the Lieutenant Governor something to do, making it his duty to visit state institutions when the legislature is not in session, and to make reports to that body and the Governor. It also provides for a salary of $4,000 per annum and traveling expenses.

Senate Constitutional amendment No. 14, provides for cities of more than 2,500 population framing and adopting charters.

The next is an act submitted to the votes of the people, to fund the debt of the state and if ratified takes effect sixty days after next election. By this law the Governor, Controller and Treasurer are authorized to issue bonds, not to exceed $2,538,200, bearing 4 per cent. interest, payable in twenty years. These bonds take the place of the present debt, or of bonds issued under act of 1870.

The act requiring an educational qualification of voters is also to be ratified or rejected. This provides that a voter must be able to write his own name and read any section of the constitution printed in the English language.

Electors will be called upon to express themselves upon the matter of electing United States Senators by popular vote.

The Temptation.

To go out of doors in rough weather is not strong, but we are, many of us, compelled to face rough weather frequently. Diseases which arise from a chill are peculiar to no season of the year. This is true, therefore there should be in the chest of every household—what? Not an unmedicated stimulant, absolutely devoid of rhythink but an excitive action, but a tonic combining, in the effective form of an invigorant and an alterative, the quality of defence against changes of weather. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has three or four properties that no other article of its class possesses. Not only does it relieve the complaints which it eventually cures, it fortifies the system against the bad effects of changes of temperature fatally and too often shown in the deadly form of "la grippe," it produces a radical change in the weakened condition of a system peculiarly liable to be attacked by it, and it tends to provide against the danger resulting from an impoverished condition of the blood and a disordered state of the liver or bowels.

GLEN ELLEN.

Dr. C. C. O'Donnell spent a few days on his farm last week.

John J. Willson has been somewhat indisposed the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Martens and family of Sonoma are camping in the park.

J. J. Gummer and family have gone to Lake county on a camping tour.

Kearney Bros. are selling large quantities of hay in this neighborhood.

P. Monahan and P. Malone were in Santa Rosa last Tuesday on road business.

B. P. Ephlin, the Southern Pacific agent, has returned from Santa Cruz greatly improved in health.

A party of bill posters and advertisers for Robinson's circus passed through town last Wednesday.

Julius Wegner purchased a large amount of cooperage at the recent auction sale on Willow ranch near Sonoma.

W. H. Dobyns of Santa Rosa was in town yesterday looking up news and subscribers for the "Republican."

John Creath gave a magic lantern entertainment in the school house last Friday. The attendance was not large.

An assault and battery case was tried last Monday in Judge Morris' Court and resulted in the discharge of the accused.

REMINGTON.

Glen Ellen, August 4th, 1892.

AGUA CALIENTE ITEMS.

Mrs. C. D. Haven has returned to her home in Oakland.

Ed. Steiger spent several days in San Francisco last week.

Mrs. Hughes and family of Oakland are guests at the Haven cottage.

M. K. Cady is having a new coat of paint put on his hotel in this place.

Last Tuesday the Trustees had the school house well thoroughly cleaned out in order to better preserve the health of the scholars.

On last Saturday night several cases of goods consigned to Mrs. Carrie H. Badger were broken into by thieves at Verano station and part of their contents stolen. The goods had arrived that morning on the railroad and were left at the station by the railway company.

On last Saturday a grass fire started in the field of G. A. Goess and before it was got under control five tons of baled hay were destroyed. No other damage was done. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Goess has been peculiarly unfortunate of late. One year ago last Fourth of July he was burned out of house and home by a similar fire.

HILESDALE NOTES.

Hazel nuts are ripe.

The weather still continues warm and pleasant.

Anson Wright threshed his crop of wheat and barley last week.

J. O. Staples of Oakland is visiting at the home of his uncle, H. C. Lafferty.

Henry Bachman of Cordelia was visiting old time friends in this vicinity several days last week.

Miss Lizzie Fridiger and Miss Lothe Hedgley graduated from the Summit Joint School last term.

Miss Edith Cole and her aunt Mrs. Whitaker of South Los Guilicos were in Santa Rosa one day this week.

J. Fridiger has a hen that brought out a brood of chicks the other day and there being two or three eggs that didn't hatch it was thought they were spoiled and on breaking one of them it was found to contain a live chick with a double head, four eyes and two distinct beaks and mouths of a natural size. The little creature lived but a few minutes. Will wonders never cease.

STRAWBERRY.

Glen Ellen, August 3d, 1892.

COUNTY ITEMS.

Three-and-a-half cents are being offered for dried grapes in Healdsburg.

Prunes are being contracted for in some parts of the country at $50 per ton.

Fifteen thousand young trout were placed in a number of streams near Santa Rosa one day last week by the Fish Commissioners.

Wm. Peterson, aged 26 years, residing on his mother's farm near Santa Rosa, was instantly killed on Friday of last week by falling from a scaffold while shingling a hop house on the place.

A crowd of young toughs tried to drown a poor old tramp in Santa Rosa last Monday night. He was thrown into a deep hole in the creek and was nearly dead when rescued by a citizen who pulled him out of the water and succeeded in bringing him to by rolling him on a barrel.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular monthly session Monday, Aug. 1st, at 10:30 A. M., all members present and chairman Smith presiding.

The reports of the following named road overseers were approved and placed on file, and the accompanying bills allowed: J. B. Cooley, Cloverdale road district, $97.20; N. H. Cox, Healdsburg, $66.10; James Patrick, Knight's Valley, $119.07; Joseph Gessage, Petaluma, $352.86; Charles Fairclo, Sebastopol, $208.22; John Johnson, Bloomfield, $10.10; D. B. Pough, Redwood, $96.50; H. A. Russell, Fulton, $218.30; J. F. Burgess, Santa Rosa, $179.85.

The clerk was instructed to draw a warrant for $1,683, the balance due on the Gualala bridge.

The sum of $150 was ordered transfered from the general road fund to the Sebastopol road fund to plank the "stamp hill" road.

The road commissioner of the district was ordered to have the bridge across Russian River at Guerneville repaired at a cost not exceeding $200.

WEDNESDAY, August 3d.

An expenditure of $250 was authorized on the bridge over Sonoma creek near Agua Caliente.

The of penalty $25 on the sign of the Guerneville bridge was ordered changed to $5, in accordance with law.

It was ordered that $62 69 be transferred from the general road fund to the Mendocino road fund for the purpose of repairing the Litton Springs bridge.

The report of Road Overseer Proctor was received, and his bill for $273.50 was allowed.

In the afternoon the Board made an official visit to the County Farm.

THURSDAY, August 4th.

Ten o'clock being the hour set for hearing the viewers' report on the petition of H. E. Williams et al., for an extension of the Santa Rosa and St. Helena road, and it appearing that due notice to non-consenting land owners had been published as required by law, and no person appearing for or against, the subject matter was postponed to be taken up at the pleasure of the Board.

The petition for a change in the boundary lines of the Marshal and Spring Hill school districts was granted.

A Pretty Surprise.

A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, just published, is a pretty surprise for book lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding with gilt title and ornaments. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less cost than $1.50 and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—it sells for only 10 cents! plus 6 cents for postage, is by mail. This covers only about the actual cost of manufacture by the 100,000, the publisher's object being, not profit, but to show the book-loving millions what he can do. His publications are not sold by dealers, but only direct; catalogue, over 100 pages, a literary curiosity in its way, is sent for a 2-cent stamp. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art. Address, John B. Alden, publisher, 57 Rose st., New York.

A MOST GRAPHIC STORY.

IT IS TAKEN DIRECT FROM REAL LIFE.

A Charming New England Lady Tells Her Experience Both Abroad and in America.

(Boston Herald.)

The unwritten romances of life are more wonderful and far more interesting than the most vivid works of fiction. The one we are about to relate occurred in real life, and is both interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Jennie Ray formerly lived in Manchester, N. H. Her home was pleasant, her surroundings comfortable. In the year 1880 she visited England, and while in that country began to experience strange sensations. At first she attributed them to the change of climate, but they continued and increased, until finally, like many another woman, she became utterly discouraged.

It was while in this condition that Mrs. Ray returned to America and her home. Thousands of women who read this story can appreciate the condition in which Mrs. Ray then was, and sympathize with her suffering. Two prominent physicians were called and endeavored to do all in their power for her relief. In spite, however, of their skill Mrs. Ray grew weaker and more depressed, while the agony she endured seemed to increase. It was at this time that a noted physician who was called, declared Mrs. Ray was suffering from cancer, said there was no help, and told her friends she could not live more than a week at the farthest.

And here comes the interesting part of the story, which we will endeavor to tell in Mrs. Ray's own words. She said:

"Unknown to all these physicians, I had been using a preparation of which I had heard much. I did not tell the physicians because I feared they would ridicule me, and perhaps order its discontinuance. During all the while that the physicians were attending me the preparation was steadily and faithfully doing its own work in its own way, and I had faith in its power. At last the doctor said there was no use of his coming, for he could do me no good. I had suffered so much that I was quite willing to die, but it seems I was nearer relief than I knew. One week from the day the doctor last called a false growth, as large as a coffee cup, and which looked as though it had been very large, left me. I sent for a doctor, and he declared it was a fibroid tumor, but said he had never known one to come away of itself before. I immediately began to gain health and strength, and I unhesitatingly declare that my rescue from death was due solely to the marvellous effects of Warner's Safe Cure, which was the remedy I took unknown to the physicians, and which certainly rescued me from the grave. It is my firm belief that many ladies who are said to die of cancer of the womb are cases like mine, and if they could be induced to use Warner's Safe Cure they, like me, might be saved."

The above graphic account is perfectly true in every respect. Mrs. Jennie Ray is now living at 142 West 6th street, South Boston, Mass., and if any lady doubts the above statement she can address Mrs. Ray, who will gladly answer all questions or grant an interview of a confidential nature to any lady who may choose to call upon her. It is said that "truth is stranger than fiction," and when the thousands of suffering, helpless women who are upon the road which physicians say leads only to death, consider the story as above given there is reason for hope and if even attempted they may be now in the depths of despondency and misery. To such ladies the above truthful account is cheerfully given.

NEW TO-DAY.

A Friend

Wishes to speak through the Register of the beneficial results he has received from a regular use of Ayer's Pills. He says: "I was feeling sick and tired and my stomach seemed all out of order. I tried a number of remedies, but none seemed to give me relief until I was induced to try the old reliable, Ayer's Pills. I have taken only one box, but I feel like a new man. I think they are the most pleasant and easy to take of anything I ever used, being so finely sugar-coated that even a child will take them. I urge upon all who are of a laxative to try Ayer's Pills."—Boothbay (Me.), Register.

In Need

"Between the ages of five and fifteen, I was troubled with a kind of salt-rheum, or eruption, chiefly confined to the legs, and especially to the bend of the knee above the calf. Here, running sores formed which would scab over, but would break immediately on moving the leg. My mother tried everything she could think of, but all was without avail. Although a child, I read, in the papers about the beneficial effects of Ayer's Pills, and persuaded my mother to let me try them. With no great faith in the result, she procured and I began to use them, and soon noticed an improvement. Encouraged by this, I kept on till I took two boxes, when the sores disappeared and have never troubled me since."—H. Chipman, Real Estate Agent, Roanoke, Va.

"I suffered for years from stomach and kidney troubles, causing very severe pains in various parts of the body. None of the remedies I tried afforded me any relief until I began taking Ayer's Pills, and was cured."—Wm. Goddard, Notary Public, Five Lakes, Mich.

His gardens are supplied with family rooms and cool shady arbors where the very best of lager and fine liquors will be served to the public. The saloon attached to the place has also a fine billiard table. Visitors to Glen Ellen should not fail to call on Mr. Hansen and make his aquaintance.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Blockmaker Has His Head Smashed Into a Pulp.

Gioseppe Malaspina, a native of Italy, aged 46 years, and by occupation a blockmaker, was instantly killed in Schocken's basalt block quarries early last Saturday morning.

The deceased was engaged in hauling a load of blocks in a hand cart. He was going down hill and lost control of the cart which suddenly tipped over, throwing him to the ground. The heavily loaded cart fell upon him, crushing one side of his head in as if it was an eggshell. The unfortunate man expired instantly. The remains were brought into town and an inquest was held by Coroner Blaney on the afternoon of the accident and a verdict of accidental death was rendered. The deceased was in poor circumstances but the Italian residents of Sonoma interested themselves, particularly L. Modini, and gave him a decent burial on the day following the accident.

The deceased leaves a wife and several children in Italy.

THE DEMOCRATS.

They Will Hold their Primaries on August 27th.

The Democratic County Central Committee met in Santa Rosa last Saturday. The following members were present with Jas. McMinn, Jr. in the chair: W. P. Barnes, J. T. Campbell, Santa Rosa; Frank Doud, Vallejo; J. A. McMinn, Washington; H. H. Maynard, Petaluma; J. B. Losser, Analy; J. P. Johnson, Bodega; W. H. Porterfield, Cloverdale; R. F. Bailey, Knight's Valley; H. H. Pyne, W. S. Dudley, Mendocino. Frank Doud acted as Secretary. It was decided by the members to hold the County Convention in Petaluma this year on Wednesday, September 7th. The primaries will be held on Saturday, August 27th. The convention will be composed of 110 delegates.

Public Receiving Vault.

The public receiving vault in Mountain Cemetery has been completed by the contractor, Wm. Trudgen, and turned over to Messrs. H. E. Boyes, Robt. Hoen, T. B. Morris and H. H. Granice, the committee authorized to have the same built, who in turn will present it to the City of Sonoma on behalf of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit Committee. The vault has a capacity of eight caskets, is built out of solid building stone and is really a better piece of work than the committee bargained for and reflects credit on the builder. The vault will be for the free use of the people of Sonoma Valley. The City Trustees have recently had constructed a new road in the cemetery which leads up to and past the vault. It is of easy grade and a vast improvement on the steep and almost impassable road which has been in use for almost fifty years.

Shall the City Conduct its Own Gas Works.

By reference to the proceedings of the City Trustees, which appears in these columns to-day, it will be seen that the City Clerk has been instructed to call an election for August 20th, to vote on the proposition as to whether or not Sonoma shall own and conduct its own gas works. The advocates of the proposition, Trustees Schocken and Litzius, claim that a plant not to exceed $4,000 and with a capacity of three hundred lights can be erected in this place and made to bring in a revenue of between $75 and $100 per month, from which the city will receive a fair profit on the investment. In addition to this it is claimed by the advocates of the proposition that the principal streets of the town can be well and cheaply lighted and gas supplied to stores, private houses, public halls, hotels and churches at less cost than coal oil. If this be true, and Trustees Schocken and Litzius ought to know what they are talking about, it is not in good form to cry down the proposition. In so far as the INDEX-TRIBUNE is concerned it is in favor of progress every time, and if this gas light proposition is all that is claimed for it we trust the people of Sonoma will support it.

Diphtheria.

The reports that have been circulated in this valley and elsewhere in regard to the spread of diphtheria in Sonoma have been greatly exaggerated. So far there has been but two deaths from the disease and the total number of cases in this place and vicinity have been less than half a dozen. At the present time our physicians have only two cases on hand. The disease is not spreading and with proper sanitary precautions there is no fear of its reaching an epidemic stage.

CITY TRUSTEES.

Some Important Improvements Projected.

A Special Election—A Petition that Was Laid Under the Table.

The business transacted by the City Trustees at their regular meeting last Wednesday evening was the most important that has come up before that body since the town was incorporated. The principal features of the meeting was the report of Messrs. Litzius add Trudgen of the Fire and Water Committee on the Vallejo claim against the city for water, the passage of an order for the building of a bridge at the Duhring crossing on Second-street East and the call for a special election to decide whether Sonoma shall own and conduct gas works.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting the Fire and Water Committee reported as follows on the claim of H. N. Clement, attorney for the Vallejo estate, for back pay for water furnished the city for fires:

Mr. President—We, the undersigned, members of the Fire and Water Committee to which has been referred the consideration of the claim of H. N. Clement, attorney for the estate of M. G. Vallejo, deceased, for back pay of water rates, beg leave to report as follows: We have examined into the propriety and legality of paying the $160 as demanded by Mr. Clement, and of making a contract for paying a stipulated sum monthly or yearly for water to be used for extinguishing fires, and we recommend that no money be paid to the owners of so-called Sonoma City Water Works for the present, at least not until said owner or owners have first applied for and received a franchise to maintain water pipes in our streets and until the Board of Trustees have passed an ordinance fixing water rates for said city and for the inhabitants thereof. And we further make the statement of F. Breitenbuch, City Clerk, which is hereto annexed, a part of this report.

L. LITZIUS.
WM. TRUDGEN.

The saloon keepers, when their petition was presented to have their quarterly licenses cut down from $15 to $9, were knocked out in the first round by the Trustees postponing the matter indefinitely on motion of Trustee Trudgen, which received a second from Trustee Seipp.

The matter of a bridge on Second street East near the residence of F. D. Duhring, came up on motion of Trustee Seipp that the same be built and that the Clerk advertise for bids for building the bridge. When put to a vote Trustees Seipp and Trudgen voted aye and Schocken and Litzius no. President Weyl cast the deciding vote in favor of the bridge, work upon which will be commenced at an early day.

A petition signed by thirteen property owners relating to the open ditch on First-street West was on motion of Trustee Litzius laid under the table instead of upon the table, and consigned to oblivion.

For the betterment of our sanitary condition and to help stamp out diphtheria, which has got a hold on the town, Trustee Schocken moved that all drain pipes and ditches discharging sewage into the open ditch on First-street West be effectually closed up and that a stone wall be built in front of the place of discharge. The motion was seconded and carried without a dissenting vote.

The stone wall on First-street West ditch was ordered to be rebuilt and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the same.

When the matter of the city owning and controlling its own gas works came up for discussion Trustee Litzius moved that two weeks notice be given in the Sonoma INDEX-TRIBUNE of a special election to be held on the 20th day of August, 1892, at which shall be submitted to the qualified electors of Sonoma City the proposition to incur an indebtedness of $4,000 for the erection of a plant to light the town with gasoline. The motion was seconded by Trustee Schocken, who explained that the plant would be owned and controlled by the city and would bring in a revenue of from $75 to $100 per month from gas consumers, besides lighting the principal streets of the town, and that the works could be conducted economically. The motion was put to a vote and carried.

The Street Committee were authorized to purchase 1,000 feet of lumber for the use of the city.

J. B. Small was given the contract to complete the curbing on the east side of the Plaza at ten cents per foot, the capping to be extra.

An invitation to attend the Swiss celebration in this place was tendered and accepted by the Trustees.

The Board then adjourned to meet next Monday at 10 o'clock A. M., as a Board of Equalization.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. F. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure, be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by J. F. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

THAT DITCH.

Law vs. Health—Diphtheria in the Lead.

"I am fearful, wherefor frowns he thus?
'Twas an aspect of terror. All not well."
King Lear.

MR. EDITOR.

Hope, fear, rage and despair fills the minds of the good citizens of Sonoma, because two things they have they don't want i. e. The ditch and diphtheria, and one thing they want that they have not got—a good sanitary ordinance, as Recorder Cheney has declared Ordinance No. 24 unconstitutional, even with the dread disease at our doors.

Most every body, of course read last week's INDEX-TRIBUNE, giving the account of the Recorder discharging Mr. McKenna and Mr. Jansen for violating the above ordidinance and proclaiming the same contrary to the State constitution.

In rendering this decision, in my opinion, the Recorder was a little too hasty and made a grave mistake, as his decision was uncalled for and far-fetched, especially so as we have need of just such a law at this particular time as he has pronounced unconstitutional.

The readers of last week's INDEX-TRIBUNE by perusing two news articles, one above the other, will see that they form a very sorrowful chapter. I refer to the article giving the particulars of the above trial and the death from diphtheria of little Lena Jansen, eldest and much beloved daughter of Mr. Victor Jansen. The subject is too sorrowful to comment upon, and while the bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathies of the whole community those who read these two items will see within them a coincidence fearful to contemplate.

I believe the time has arrived when the citizens of Sonoma should arouse themselves. If they have no sanitary law make one. Ordinance No. 24 is very good. There is no more reason why diphtheria should exist in this town than sun-stroke. But what is the Board of Health doing? Allowing public funerals of diphtheria cases and taking no heed of their sworn duty. Remember the disease and the foul ditch are both here. For Heaven's sake stamp out the former and clean out the latter. Give your City Trustees a show. Don't all howl like Indians. If the Trustees spend a few dollars to clean up let them go ahead. Every member of the Board of Trustees undoubtedly means well, but when they improve one side of the town the other three sides set up a howl. If a bridge is repaired on one street a dozen citizens, good and true, want to know why some other use was not made of the money. Considering this condition of things is it any wonder that the Trustees disagree? Is it any wonder that at times they become almost distracted. Give your City Dads a show, and when they make a good law don't try to kick it full of holes.

Sonoma, with the finest climate on earth should contain the most contented people in the world, and health, wealth and contentment should be seen on every hand.

Splendid Tribute

THE SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF HEALTH URGES THE USE OF THE Royal Baking Powder.

The magnificent tribute of the San Francisco Board of Health to the great purity and wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder greatly disturbs the manufacturers of the lower grade powders. Their envious publications, however, cannot break the force of this unsolicited and unbiassed, high medical endorsement. Attached is a certified copy of their original report, with the signatures of the members of the Board in fac-simile:

We, the members of The Board of Health of the City and County of San Francisco, cordially approve and recommend the Royal Baking Powder. It is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients of the highest strength and character.

In our judgment it is impossible to make a purer or stronger Baking Powder than the "Royal."

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, AUG. 6, 1892.

An Unhappy Monster.

The people residing along Palmetto creek, South Carolina, as well as those for miles back in the "slashes," are highly excited over the appearance of a strange and uncouth creature in that vicinity. The beast is described as being a creature that far outdoes the nightmare ideas of the mythologists. It is equally at home in the water, on the land or among the tall trees of the neighborhood, where it has been most frequently seen. The general contour of the head reminds one of some gigantic serpent with this exception: The "snout" terminates in a bulbus, monkey faced knot, which much resembles the physiognomy of some gigantic ape. From the neck down, with the exception of some fin shaped flippers, which extend from the arms to the waist, the creature resembles a man, only that the toes and fingers are armed with claws from two to six inches long.

Tracks made by the beast in the soft mud around Hennis lake have been taken to Donner's Grove, where they are kept on exhibition in a druggist's showcase. Those who have seen the horrid thing face to face say that it is a full nine feet in height, which could hardly be believed only for the fact that the tracks mentioned above are within a small fraction of fifteen inches in length. Fishermen who surprised the monster sitting silently on a mass of driftwood declared that its back looked like an alligator's, and that it had a caudal termination a yard long, which forked like the tail of a fish.—St. Louis Republic.

Little Short of Murder.

The neighbors around a certain corner of Ash street were alarmed on Monday night by low moans issuing from a closely curtained carriage that stood on the corner. A driver sat upon the seat. One of the neighbors came out and approached the team to ask what was the matter. Before he reached the corner the driver caught sight of him, and whipping up the horses drove rapidly off. The folks were doubly alarmed, and after a good deal of exciting talk asked a policeman to call at the house on the corner and ascertain who was hurt, or if any mystery was in the moans. He talked with an excited woman who came to the door, and also with a man who wiped his eyes with a handkerchief, while the neighbors stood across the street in suspicious silence. The officer came over the street and told them that the old family dog, the hero of dozens and dozens of fights and of 28 years, had been carried off to die by a bullet. The dog evidently understood his fate, for he began to moan and moan as soon as they took him from the house.—Lewiston Journal.

Eskimos for the World's Fair.

Two well known Swedish scientists MM. Bjorling and Kallstenuis, arrived at St. John's, Newfoundland, yesterday. They are commissioned by the geographical and geological societies of Stockholm to explore the shores of Smith's sound, in the Arctic regions, to collect specimens of the flora and fauna of the district and to take astronomical observations. They will hire a schooner in St. John's for their voyage, from which they expect to return in September. Information has been received that a party of Americans is coming to explore Labrador and visit the Great falls, which were discovered last year. Another American party leaves here soon in order to transport for the World's fair at Chicago three villages of different tribes of Eskimos, with all their belongings, and also a village of Indians inhabiting the mountainous districts in the interior of Labrador.—Newfoundland Cor. Pall Mall Gazette.

A Ball of Fire on a Housetop.

During a severe electrical storm this evening the Crescent oil refinery was struck by lightning and caught fire, but the blaze was extinguished without much damage. The house of Ferdinand Kreiner was struck by a ball of electric fire, which exploded with tremendous force. A fire alarm was turned in, but the electrical display burned itself out without even setting fire to the house. Eyewitnesses say it was the most remarkable sight they ever witnessed. An enormous electric globe of fire lodged against the peak of the house, where it hung, burning and spitting flashes of fire until exhausted. Every inmate of the place was more or less severely shocked, the air being heavily charged. All watches and clocks on the premises were stopped and other electrical phenomena occurred.—Bradford Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

Bed Demolished, Occupants Unharmed.

A strange freak of a bolt of lightning occurred at Jeannette during the heavy storm last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krisman reside in a small tenement house close to the Catholic church. They were in bed and asleep when the storm began to rage. Suddenly their bed was torn from beneath them and reduced to splinters. A bolt of lightning had struck the house and passed through the wall into the room occupied by them. The couple were not hurt.—Pittsburg Post.

Again the Willipus-Wallapus!

A couple of darkies raised considerable excitement Saturday night by declaring that they had seen the gyascutus, willipus-wallapus, or whatever it is that has been prowling around here for two or three weeks past. A big crowd turned out armed with guns, sticks, axes, etc., but after a thorough search failed to locate the varmint.—Turin Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

A wire netting fence 500 miles long is one of the late Australian wonders. The fence separates the colonies of New South Wales and Queensland, and its object is to keep the rabbits out of the latter country.

A recent order for books sent by Mr. Gladstone to a London dealer embraced works ranging in character from a volume of Eton verse to treatises on solar physics and myths.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Ed. Wegner's Drugstore.

"German Syrup"

The majority of well-read physicians now believe that Consumption is a germ disease. In other words, instead of being in the constitution itself it is caused by innumerable small creatures living in the lungs having no business there and eating them away as caterpillars do the leaves of trees.

A Germ Disease.

The phlegm that is coughed up is those parts of the lungs which have been gnawed off and destroyed. These little bacilli, as the germs are called, are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but they are very much alive just the same, and enter the body in our food, in the air we breathe, and through the pores of the skin. Thence they get into the blood and finally arrive at the lungs where they fasten and increase with frightful rapidity. Then German Syrup comes in, loosens them, kills them, expells them, heals the places they leave, and so nourish and soothe that, in a short time consumptives become germ-proof and well.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Rather Be Without Bread. XI

BISHOP'S RESIDENCE, Marquette, Mich., Nov. 7, 1889.

The Rev. J. Koesbiel, of above place, writes: I have suffered a great deal, and whenever I now feel a nervous attack coming I take a dose of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and feel relieved. I think a great deal of it, and would rather be without bread than without the Tonic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 19, '90.

From this far-off land I write to say that I have been suffering for 25 years from the time my first child was born with spinal and brain trouble, and as I grew older the pain seemed to grow worse; I heard some time ago of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. Am on the second bottle now and feel the pain in my back very, very much relieved, indeed.

F. G. Nagle SOLD OUT!

THIS AGREEMENT MADE AND ENTERED INTO this third day of October, 1887, between F. G. Nagle of the City of Santa Rosa, party of the first part, and J. W. Ragsdale and H. C. Brown of the same place, the parties of the second part, Witnesseth: That the party of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS gold coin of the United States of America to him in hand paid by the parties of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does by these presents sell, assign, convey, transfer and set over unto the said parties of the second part and their heirs forever, all those abstracts, books of abstracts, papers, records and files of every nature and kind pertaining to the business of abstracting or conveyancing now conducted and carried on by the party of the first part, at the City of Santa Rosa, Sonoma county; also all the business now on hand or contracted to be done by the party of the first part, as Searcher of Records, Abstractor, or Conveyancer; also all the furniture, fixtures and safe now in the office of said party of the first part, in said City of Santa Rosa.

To have and hold the same and the whole thereof, unto the said party of the second part and to their heirs forever.

And in consideration of the premises the party of the first part hereby sells, transfers and conveys unto the said parties of the second part, the good will of said business, that is to say the good will of the business of the party of the first part as Searcher of Records, Abstractor and Conveyancer in the County of Sonoma, and the whole thereof.

And the said party of the first part hereby promises, covenants and agrees to and with the parties of the second part, and their heirs, to refrain from and not to carry on or conduct, or in any other manner be engaged in, directly or indirectly, as owner, employee, or otherwise in the business of Searcher of Records, Abstracter or Conveyancer in said County of Sonoma, or any part thereof, so long as the parties of the second part, OR EITHER OF THEM, shall carry on a like business in said Sonoma county.

Provided, that the said party of the first part may carry on the business of Conveyancing in any portion of the said County of Sonoma, except in the City of Santa Rosa.

In witness whereof the said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written. F. G. NAGLE [SEAL]

Witness, G. M. SPENCER.

Recorded in Liber B of Bonds and Agreements, page 88, Sonoma County Records.

NAGLE IN COURT.

In the Justice's Court of Santa Rosa Township, Sonoma County, California.

J. W. RAGSDALE, Plaintiff, vs.
F. G. NAGLE, Defendant.

The plaintiff for cause of action against the defendant, alleges: That on the 16th day of November, 1888, said defendant, F. G. Nagle, received from G. W. Call the sum of one hundred (100) dollars, the property of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau; that of said money said defendant, Nagle, returned to said Bureau the sum of $20 only, and retained, and ever since has retained, the balance of said $100 to wit, $80, for his own use, and that no part of said $80 has ever been paid; that said Bureau assigned said claim to plaintiff.

For a further and separate cause of action plaintiff alleges: That defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $80 for money had and received from G. W. Call, November 16th, 1888, for the use and benefit of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau, which claim has been assigned to the plaintiff, and that no part of the same has ever been paid.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for a judgment against defendant for the sum of $80 and costs.

RUTLEDGE & PRESSLEY,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Dec. 9, 1891, complaint filed, summons issued and served. Dec. 15 default and judgment entered against defendant for $80 and costs. Dec. 16th, Nagle pays judgment.

Cleveland vs Harrison

THIS IS THE TIME for torchlight processions, wild cheering, songs, speeches, red fire and enthusiasm. The whole country is aroused. Recognizing the immense demand for political literature, we have issued a magnificent Republican campaign book,

The Lives of Harrison and Reid

with beautiful portraits and full information about the great issues of the day. Protection, Reciprocity, The Silver Question, etc., by McKinley, Rusk, Senator Hale, Secretary Noble, Murat Halstead, etc. Also, in a separate volume the:

Lives of Cleveland & Stevenson with authentic portraits and biographical sketches; also a splendid discussion of the Democratic principles by Powerful Democratic Statesmen, proving the soundness of Democratic principles.

Thousands of agents will coin money with these splendid books. They will sell where nothing else would. Don't wait to write, but send 25 cents for one or 50 cents for both outfits, showing the beautiful engravings.

Beware of Cheap John Books.

Secure the official editions with the great Republican and Democratic leaders' views on the Tariff and Silver questions.

Everybody Wants these Books.

Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics and all classes will eagerly buy them. They will sell like wildfire. The greatest chance for money-making ever offered. Address quick
